Australia-Indonesia BRIDGE Project, posted 14 October 2011

Applications for the 2012 Australia-Indonesia BRIDGE Project close Friday 21 October. <

Established in 2008, the Australia-Indonesia BRIDGE Project has established 65 school partnerships between Australia and Indonesia providing unique professional learning opportunities for teachers and enabling teachers and students to connect across cultures.

The objectives of the Australia-Indonesia BRIDGE Project are to:

1. create and support school-to-school partnerships.
2. improve the intercultural knowledge and skills of all participants.
3. enhance the ICT knowledge and skills of all participants.
4. build professional knowledge and skills, including strategies of effective teaching practice, among participant teaching staff

Support your school's implementation of the Australian Curriculum through the cross-curriculum priority of Asia and Australia's Engagement with Asia and the general capability of Intercultural Understanding by participating in the BRIDGE Project.

Endeavour Language Teaching Fellowships (ELTF) 2012, posted 1 May 2011

Following is an abbreviated version of the information from Matthew Absalom (editor of Babel) about the ELTF next year:

- Due to the lower numbers in the 2011 Spanish and Korean fellowship, programs will alternate with Greek and Vietnamese which will in 2012 be included alongside Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Indonesian, Italian, and Japanese.
- There was discussion around the Japan disaster and how to manage that program in 2012, and the issue of Indonesian unrest and the effects on the 2012 program.
- The application process is being streamlined and likely to be online from now on.
- There was a suggestion that all potential applicants need to demonstrate membership of either their MLTA or SLA.
- There are moves to create an ELTF alumni and a clear desire to find a way to collect and share resources developed by ELTF awardees.

Constitution update and Executive positions open, posted 1 May 2011

We now have a common seal of the MLTA ACT and the last changes of the Constitution will be completed over school holidays and ready for the AGM in May. Consider nominating yourself or a colleague for the positions vacant - Treasurer and Secretary. All the work involving these two positions for this year so far has been done.

New arrival, posted 1 May 2011

Our former Vice-President Natalie gave birth in April to a beautiful girl Brianna. Congratulations and best wishes from MLTA.
